Prof. Atwater, the expert on foods, says the American people not only eat a great deal more than is good for them, but that they waste a good deal more than they eat. In an interesting array of facts presented to the New York State Commission on lunacy, he shows that more food is wasted in the inmates of American hospitals for the insane than is given to the German soldiers in their war ration, although it is a well known fact that an inmate of the asylum requires less food than the average person otherwise situated, while the war ration issued to the soldier is intended to meet physical strain.

Taken to Her Home.

H. H. Sigman returned yesterday from the mining properties in the Placeritas district, Sonora, in which he is interested, having been summoned by messenger upon the accident occurring to Mrs. Sigman. He found Mrs. Sigman much better than could be hoped for from the account of the serious extent of Mrs. Sigman's injuries which had been sent him. Meanwhile Mrs. Sigman had wired to Brownwood, Texas, for Dr. Allison, who had been her attendant physician for years, and that gentleman also arrived yesterday. He expressed a very favorable opinion concerning the professional treatment already rendered Mrs. Sigman, but in deference to the strong desire of Mrs. Sigman to return to her former home at Brownwood, both he and Mr. Sigman consented to her returning there, and this morning she was taken to the train on a litter and started for Brownwood, accompanied by Mr. Sigman and Dr. Allison.

So soon as Mrs. Sigman's convalescence shall have become assured, Mr. Sigman will return here and proceed to his mining properties, which he is developing on a considerable scale, and with much confidence.

W. F. Fickas has lately received a letter from his son Kurtz Fickas, an infantryman in the Philippines. He has for some time been stationed at Bacalar. He had made friends among the amigos or friendly Filipinos who told him of the location of some rich placer grounds. Accompanied by a couple of California prospectors, he visited the grounds, which lie ten miles within the insurgent lines. They returned with ten bags of dirt, which the Californians said was the richest they had ever seen. The grounds cover an extensive area. As soon as the war is over and things are settled, Mr. Fickas will try and avail himself of his find.—Republican.
